THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 6, 1893.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Sun rises to-morrow at 5:37; sun sets 6:23. High water 11:00 a. m. and 12:00 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this morning, threatening weather with rain during the afternoon and to-night and probably Friday morning; winds shifting to northeast today and shifting to east and southeast to-morrow; colder Friday morning, probably followed by rising temperature Friday evening.

PERSONAL.—At the regular meeting of the vestry of Moore-Memorial church in Richmond Tuesday night Rev. Dr. D. F. Sprigg tendered his resignation as pastor. He will continue to serve until his successor is chosen. Dr. Sprigg is editor of the Southern Churchman, and that work demands much of his time. He left this city in 1879 and since that time has been rector of Moore-Memorial.

At the meeting of the vestry of St. Paul's Church last night Mr. J. R. Zimmerman was elected delegate to the Episcopal Council, which meets in Winchester next month, and Capt. P. B. Hoot alternates.

Miss Maggie O'Neal left for Baltimore this afternoon to attend the funeral of Miss Annie Hall.

There is no truth in the story that Judge Robert W. Hughes proposes to retire from the bench. He is entitled to do so and on full pay, but his view is that he has no right to impose this expense upon the United States government as long as he retains his bodily and mental health. At present he is in the full enjoyment of both.

Miss Pauline Pick has gone to Norfolk to make that city her future home. Master Bathurst Daingerfield last night charmingly entertained his many friends at the residence of his father, Mr. W. B. Daingerfield, on Washington street. The little folks enjoyed themselves in dancing, playing games, &c., till a late hour.

Miss Mary E. Peck, daughter of Mr. Harvey Peck, residing a short distance from this city across Cameron road, and Mr. Frank Cole were married on Tuesday night by Rev. Dr. Nelson. That night the newly married couple were given a charivari by their friends.

Mr. J. Harry Atcheson left her to day with Dr. O'Brien for New York for surgical treatment.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear until about one o'clock, when it became cloudy. One prisoner and four lodgers were at the station house.

Mayor Strauss this morning disposed of the following cases:

Denny Napper, who was found last night by Officer McCuen "cussing drunk," was the first delinquent made to face the court. Napper, the officer said, was very drunk when taken in custody, and had cursed and abused everybody within his reach. Upon being asked to give an account of himself this morning, he undertook to play dumb. He was fined $5 and having no money was turned over to Capt. Wood, of the chain gang.

The next case was that of a young black man calling himself James Ball, who alleged that a young white man named Ernest Travers had assaulted him and cut his clothes at the gas works last night. It seems that Travers's father had advanced $3 to Ball who had promised to work on the former's fishing shore, but had failed to put in an appearance at the appointed time. Young Travers had met Ball last night and had upbraided him for refusing to go to work, and, according to the negro's story, had assaulted him. It further appeared that both had been ordered to stop loading about the gas works, and the Mayor, who had evinced a determination to scatter the gang which nightly infests the works, fined Ball $5, to be his second offense, and Travers $2.50. Ball immediately entered the ranks of the chain gang in default of payment of the fine.

ANOTHER TRIBUTARY.—The construction of the Mount Vernon Railroad has not only placed all lower Fairfax in easy communication with Alexandria, but a little part of Maryland from the south bank of Broad creek to points opposite Mount Vernon. Numerous people living in portions of Prince George and Charles counties utilize the railway by crossing the river in boats and boarding the cars at Mt. Vernon or anywhere else on the line, and in a few minutes are brought to this city where they can purchase anything they may desire. It has been noticed of late that numbers of Marylanders leave the cars near Sheridan's Point and cross to Fort Washington in boats. The river at this point is narrow, and it takes but a few minutes to cross it. The utility and cheapness of this route must be apparent to all. The cars being run every fifteen minutes, there is no need to wait for the regular hours of steamboats, which consume an hour in making the trip, and which would not return until next day, while the cars run to and fro until sundown.

COUNTY LAND SALES.—The following sales of county real estate have recently been made:

The Virginia Brick Co. to Washington Southern Railway Co. two acres of land near the Long bridge for $3,000.

T. H. Taylor to M. A. Dye a house and lot near Arlington for $250.

G. Vanderwerker to C. G. Smith the stone quarries near the Chain bridge.

W. F. Woods to Charles Whaley a lot on Fairfax street extended for $100.

Samuel C. and Lucy Ball to Mary J. Peabody four acres near Ballston.

Caroline Lambdin to J. P. Robinson, D. K. Trimmer et al. a tract near Fort Myer.

E. Francis to Adeline Harris a lot at the corner of Fairfax and Second streets for $80.

W. Dodson to Rosa Lowe a tract on the Little Falls road.

J. R. Johnson to Samuel Bealnear 53 acres near Johnson's Store for $5,700.

EAST LYNNE.—Miss Ada Gray as Lady Isabel and Madame Vine will be the attraction at the Opera House to-morrow night. The Savannah News in its mention of Miss Gray says: "Miss Gray portrayed with great effect the beautiful, jealous, and loving wife, and the repentant heart-broken woman. At the close of the second and third acts, she received a call before the curtain in appreciation of her talent, and in the fourth act in which is portrayed the death-bed scene of her little son, and in the fifth in which she died filled with remorse for the errors of her life, she received still more practical recognition of her genius by a copious flow of tears throughout the auditorium."

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

WEDDING.—The marriage of Miss Esther Pitts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Pitts, to Mr. James R. Orr, of Union City, Pa., was solemnized at 8 o'clock last night at the residence of the bride's parents on Duke street, by Rev. Thomas E. Carson of the M. E. Church South. The bride was attired in a dress of fawn colored cloth and carried a bouquet of La France roses. When the ceremony was concluded refreshments were served after which Mr. and Mrs. Orr received the congratulations of their many friends present and left on the 9:15 train for the north where they will spend their honeymoon. Among the many guests present were some from a distance. The presents were many and very beautiful.

ALMOST A FIRE.—Between 11 and 12 o'clock last night while Officers Crump and Grady were patrolling Union street they discovered fire in the planing mill of Aitchison & Bro., on the west side of that street, near Duke. They, in conjunction with the watchman, entered the mill and extinguished the flames. When the fire was discovered it had reached one of the rafters and had it not been speedily extinguished in a few minutes a disastrous conflagration would have been raging. It is supposed the fire was started from the foundry adjoining, sparks having doubtless been blown into the sawdust and shavings on the floor of the mill.

FIREMEN'S MEETING.—The monthly meeting of the Columbia Fire Company was held last night, at which the committee in charge of the ball held on Monday night reported that about $140 had been cleared. Committees were appointed to make arrangements for attending the firemen's celebration in Frederick, Md., on June 7th and 8th next. Mr. J. L. Duffley was directed to visit that city this week to look after quarters, &c., for the members of the company.

FILED HIS PETITION.—Several gentlemen of this city yesterday went to Washington, and with Representative Meredith, visited the Treasury Department and filed the application of Mr. T. W. Robinson for collector of customs at this port. So far this is the only application filed for this position and if Mr. Robinson is appointed it is understood that he will appoint Mr. M. P. Vincent his deputy.

RECEPTION.—A reception was tendered last night by Mr. Daniel Thompson, at Holland Hall, in Fairfax county, below this city, to his brother, Mr. Egbert Thompson, who has just returned from Kentucky with his bride. Among those in attendance were a number of ladies and gentlemen from this city who left here on a special train on the electric railway.

RESUMED WORK.—Operations at the Alexandria Brick Works, on Hunting creek, were resumed yesterday after the winter shut-down. There are now fifty hands employed at the works, and the bricks made there have a wide reputation for excellence.

FISH.—Since yesterday 100,000 herring and 5,000 shad have been received at Fishtown. Herring sold at $4.86 per thousand and shad at $10.85 per hundred. The receipts are increasing daily.

Would Rather Be Senator.

A dispatch from Richmond, says: It is understood that Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, who was booked for a visit to President Cleveland yesterday or to-day, goes in response to an invitation from Mr. Cleveland himself. Ex-Governor Lee is a leading candidate for the position of United States Senator before the legislature that is to be elected this fall. His most formidable opponent is Mr. Thomas Martin, of Albemarle. It is understood that Gov. Lee has said that he did not wish any office in Mr. Cleveland's gift, but preferred to try for the Senate. Among a good many of his friends, however, there is a secret wish that he will accept something from the hands of Mr. Cleveland. They do not think that he will certainly get the senatorship. While they think he could easily win in an election before the people, they do not see that he will have a walk-over before the legislative caucus. Democrats, too, are not anxious to have a hot fight between Martin and Lee, in which Senator Daniel may be unpleasantly placed. He is a warm friend of both, but is under the strongest obligation to Martin, who really won the senatorship for him over the late Senator Barbour. The democrats seek to dread a contest between two such equally divided men in their party. Mr. Martin is stronger in organizing ability and with the politicians of his party, while Lee is stronger before the people, but weak in organization. The result of the interview of Gen. Lee with President Cleveland is, therefore, waited for with eagerness by the partisans of not only Lee and Martin, but the present Senator Hunton as well.
